

Castro Prisoners Tell Of CIA Efforts on TV

KEY WEST, Fla., Nov. 2 know the mission of these AP "Three youths who said men. Then we would return them to United States. Con- to the ship."

Castro's three agents captured by United Castro forces American on Havana television showed and told about their activities.

Appeared by Castro said: "The three, apparently about 30 years old, continued: "The artillery of the ship (Rex) by Cuban said they made "consisted of five 20-caliber canister trips to contact anti-Castro forces in Cuba. The guns, and other weapons. Havana TV program was monitored in Key West.

Luis Montero Carrazana, tall and wearing a white sport shirt, said he had worked for the CIA since 1960.

He said he worked in Miami with the Christian Democratic Movement, an anti-Castro organization.

"I contacted Dr. Ignacio Alfonso, of the Christian Democrats, who asked us to join their organization and they said we could work with their group. We made three or four

"The first, in November 1961, disembarked in Oriente, (eastern Cuba) after leaving the Marathon (in the Florida Keys), he said.

Traveling with Montero were Alberto Inclan and Rosendo Rodriguez.

Montero said he was the master of the ship, which had previously been used as a vessel based at the Florida Keys.

The ship traveled as a merchant vessel for a Nicaraguan company. The prisoner sailed many times in 1961, delivered packages to a moored five or six from the Cuban coast, and two launches. We have six men and 25 or 30 men in Cuba. I did not

He did not explain what the packages contained.

The Cuban, who appeared to be about 30 years old, continued: "The artillery of the ship (Rex) consisted of five 20-caliber canisters, four 50-caliber machine guns, and other weapons. Before daybreak we returned to Key West or Miami.

We always returned to the American coast," he said.

Montero claimed the CIA paid him $250 a month at first, then later increased it to $275 a month.

"When they wanted us to go on a mission they informed us by telephone. The man who gave the orders for the CIA was an American who we called Capt. Ward.

"I participated in many missions. One was about at Santo

Lucia. This mission was carried out by 12 commandos whom we had been trained for the CIA.
